We are excited to bring you two fabulous workshops this spring! Take a look below and allow yourself to be transported into the amazing world of horses!

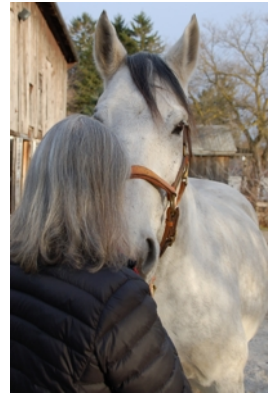

Healing with Horses and Reiki

Shelly Burton, Founder of Samhara Reiki Lineage, is back in collaboration with Wendy Golding, Founder of Horse Spirit Connections, to bring you this magical, mystical two-day workshop!

March 5 & 6, 2016

Horses and Samhara™ Reiki are a natural combination. Working with horses provides a gateway to accessing the inner emotional world - the one that rules what manifests around us, in a gentle, nurturing, and powerful way.

Working with horses is a great way to get to the heart of the matter. Horses open the doorway to what's really going on. They provide a safe, protected and loving environment, for us to open up and explore the inner territory of our beings.

These gentle and majestic beings act as mirrors for us. As you are guided through connection activities, you will become aware of the dynamic between you and the horse. You will learn to interpret the horses' language and movements towards you, and how to receive their teachings about how to adjust your energetics, or make effective transition or changes in your life. While this is happening, the horses carry out intensive energy work on your chakras and etheric body. Experience a powerful heart connection, 'being felt', or a deep release. You will feel more connected with yourself and liberated from old patterns and stuck emotions.

The combination with Samhara™ Reiki allows you to deepen the experience energetically. The thing is that while horses are powerful healers, they can't exactly talk to you. The Reiki sessions are a powerful way of creating dialogue about the depth of the experience, to continue and quicken the processing. Samhara™ sessions, by including drumming, singing, and other forms of vibrational transmission, can deepen the movement or release of what the horses brought up. It is also an incredibly soothing, peaceful and relaxing way of following the physical engagement with the wise horses teachers.

The event also includes drum journeys, sound therapy, meditation exercises and more. Customized to take you inward to explore, bond and bring out the next level of yourself.

Jump forwards into spring and your own reawakening!

Testimonials

"For the first time in as long as I can remember, I let down the barriers, got out of my head, and took a deeper look at my heart and at myself." - Debbie Johnson

"I really enjoyed the experience as a whole. I love horses but never had such a deep connection with them before this workshop. I'm able to understand them better and, through that experience, to understand myself." - Clarissa Magalhães

"A journey of divine love. Allow your truth and passion to be revealed." - Anna de Santis

We are delighted to host Linda Kohanov here at Horse Spirit Connections!!

Linda Kohanov is an author, speaker, riding instructor and horse trainer who has become an internationally recognized innovator in the field of Equine Experiential Learning and a respected writer on the subject of Equine Facilitated Psychotherapy. Based in Arizona, she was Andre's and my teacher and was the impetus for our incredible journey with the horses as teacher and healer.

Linda has written: The Tao of Equus: A Woman's Journey of Healing and Transformation through the Way of the Horse, Riding Between the Worlds: Expanding Our Potential through the Way of the Horse, Way of the Horse: Equine Archetypes for Self-Discovery, and Power of the Herd.

Not only is this the first workshop Linda has done in Canada for many years; it is the first workshop based on her NEW book which is going to be released this June.

June 13-15, 2016 - The Five Roles of a Master Herder: A Revolutionary Model for Socially Intelligent Leadership
Limited to 12 Participants

"In this engaging 3 day introductory workshop, bestselling author Linda Kohanov debuts compelling insights and practical tools from her upcoming book The Five Roles of a Master Herder (due in June 2016). This innovative model-based on an ancient source of wisdom-offers a much needed perspective on how free, empowered people can navigate continuously changing social and economic climates."

What might we accomplish if we finally understood how to be powerful, together?

I had the honour of reading the first edit of Linda's new book. I very much enjoyed reading her astute and profound teachings in 'The Five Roles of a Master Herder'. These new innovative concepts opened up and developed the teachings from the Power of the Herd for me. The new book is laid out well with delightful personal stories, horse tales, and relevant human narratives.

The comprehensive description of each of the roles allowed me to relate fully and apply the concepts back to my life, especially understanding that all roles are necessary for a whole and balanced life. It especially helped with my relationship with our herd. There is an assessment at the back of the book for each person to discern which roles are their strengths and which needs to be developed.

Cost: $1500 US
